

You Are Invited to Participate in a Strategic Message Small Group Dialogue

The Communications Committee is working to discern a strategic marketing message. This message will serve to inspire and attract people to the Church of the Covenant for generations to come.

The message will become the cornerstone for all print, broadcast, and electronic media communications in the future.

You are invited to participate in a small group dialogue in which you will be asked a series of questions. These questions are designed to take you into the future, and help craft a message that will resonate with people for generations to come.

Because this dialogue is about the future, you must be willing to give up problem solving the past or present.

This is a discernment process. You must be willing to actively listen more than you actively speak. You must be willing to engage other participants at the level of their inspirations and aspirations for the Church of the Covenant.

If you decide not to participate, we will understand and honor your choice.

*"For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord,
... to give you a future with hope."*

Jeremiah 29:11

These dialogues are a key element of that future.

We hope you attend!
